Dear Ms Katherine Harris,

Enclosed is my company's 1999 Annual Report Filing information and a check for $150.00. I realize that my Annual Report was not filed on time and that this is the second request from your office. However, I respectfully request that you accept the enclosed check because I never received the first notice. I have always paid this fee timely and I am a good and decent tax payer. I would like you to consider the additional comedy of errors that occurred within my office during the first few months of the year.

First, I had a terrible time receiving my mail during this period. You see I moved my office up one floor in the same building. Unfortunately, the mail carrier was unable to catch on that I was still in the same building and kept returning most of my mail to the post. Secondly, I hired a new secretary in late December. She was very inexperienced in business and unclear as to what documents were important and which ones weren't. She has since matured in her position in my company and as such, I do not foresee any of these problems occurring in the future.

Please consider the issues I have raised in this letter. After you do I know you will accept the enclosed check and the annual report filing with this letter.

Respectfully yours,

Jay Horowitz
