Our records indicate your tax return for the period referenced above was filed late and penalty is now due. There is a minimum penalty, even if no tax is due. Type of return: Sales and Use Tax Return (Form DR-15EZ).

Tax return filed 2 month(s) late.

Penalty now due: $ 50.00

To avoid additional collection activity, pay the total due immediately upon receipt of this notice. See the reverse side for payment options.

Please compare your records to this information. If you believe this notice was issued in error, you have the right to request a correction. You may be required to submit an amended return or other written documentation before final resolution.

Effective July 1, 2003, the minimum penalty changed to 10% of the amount due or $50, whichever is greater. The minimum penalty of $50 applies even if you filed a late "zero tax due" return. Florida law provides that if you are required to file returns on a semi-annual or annual basis, penalty may be compromised only if a taxpayer can prove the noncompliance was due to "reasonable cause" and not due to willful negligence, willful neglect, or fraud.

If you have reason to believe you qualify for a penalty compromise based on these criteria, you may contact the Department. See the reverse side for contact information.

Failure to immediately resolve this matter may result in further collection activity, up to and including the filing of a tax lien and/or referral to a private collection agency.
