Dear Sir or Madam:

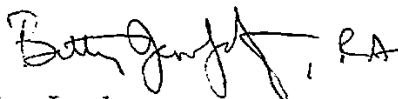

Enclosed you will find the completed Application for Reinstatement on three corporations of which I am the registered agent. Neither I nor the business offices of these corporations received the annual reports to timely file. Lack of which has caused the corporations to now be dissolved.

I respectfully request that you waive the penalty fee since we did not have the opportunity to file these annual returns in a time frame which would have eliminated the possibility of additional fees.

The addresses of the corporations were correct but in several instances found that mail was not being delivered properly. This may be the underlying reason why the annual reports were not received. To eliminate this problem the mailing address of the corporations is shown on each return and will be my office address, this way I will remain attentive as to what is received or not. Please be sure to send all correspondence to the mailing address shown on the returns and not the principal place of business address.

I sincerely appreciate your assistance with this problem and hope this clears everything up. If you have any questions please fax them to my office number below.

Sincerely,

Betty Jean Londono,
Registered Agent for:

Gulf Aeromotive Inc.
Land & Castle International Corp
Land & Castle Realty Inc.
