Dear Leslie Sellers,

As per our phone conversation earlier this a.m. the primary reason the documents were not filed promptly were due to not receiving the original notice by your department and subsequently an oversight by our administration occurred. On June 17, 1997 a blank form was provided to us by our accounting department and the fees were sent to your office. Much to my dismay, the Annual Report was not filed accordingly due to insufficient data and returned. At this time we are resubmitting the annual report again with the appropriate fees and additional data that was omitted. We hope that in lieu of all this chaos the document will become filed once and for all. Thank you in advance for your resolution to this matter.

Sincerely,

Vidal L. Lopez, Registered Agent
