Dear Sir or Madam:

We are in receipt of your letters to our clients where you inform them that their annual reports (Uniform Business Report) were received by you but have not been filed. See attached letters.

We feel that there must be an error with this because these annual reports were taken directly by us to the post office on Monday, May 1 at about noon. Therefore, they had to be postmarked on May 1, 2000.

It is respectfully requested that you waive these penalties since we feel that they are in error and the payment of an additional $400 per company would be extremely stressful to their financial condition.

Your consideration in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Eileen Garcia, CPA
