RE: Late Fee 2002

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

I enclose this letter asking for you to waive the $400 penalty fee for my late filing this year. I am a sole business owner and a single father of two teenage girls. Last year, I inadvertently filed my Annual Report late because my daughter had misplaced the envelope and I paid the $400.00 fee, vowing that this error would not happen again.

This year, I was suffering from a double hernia and although I had to forego surgery to finish my jobs, I was forced to have surgery when one partially prolapsed. I had the surgery finally on May 10, 2002. It was only when I received the late payment form that I realized this error.

I ask at this time that you forgive the late fee. As I mentioned I have two teenage daughters, the first in college, and the second will be attending the University of Florida this fall. Frankly, the payment of the late fee will be a burden to me financially because of the schooling costs. Please note that, as per the telephone instructions of your specialist, I enclose my Report and my check in the amount of $150.00 with this letter.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation. I truly appreciate your willingness to review this matter.

Yours Sincerely,

John Bains
