RE: REASONABLE CAUSE FOR ABATEMENT OF PENALTY
JEROME KERN, PRESIDENT
J. KERN INTERIOR REMODELING, INC.
FEI # 65-0550558

Dear Sir,

We were instructed by an agent at your office, to write a letter requesting an abatement of the penalty assessed for late filing. Mr. Kern had left all his paperwork with his CPA, who was suppose to file all reports and returns relating to the above mentioned corporation. Because of the age of his CPA and his failing health, Mr. Kern was instructed by his CPA that he would not be able to do any of the work. All paper work was given to CPA in early February, and Mr. Kern was led to believe all reports and extensions had been filed. Upon picking up his work this past week he learned for the first time that nothing had been done on this account.

He than made an appointment with our firm on 7/14/2000, we than discovered a Second Notice for the Annual Corporate report at which time we immediately called and was instructed to write this letter and mail a check for $150.00. Your consideration on this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Jerome Kern, Pres.
