To whom it may concern,

We have just received a second notice informing us that our professional corporate annual report is late. The fee for filing late is now $550.00, a $400.00 penalty or roughly 350% more. We feel that this is an unfair penalty since we did not receive our first notice.

We contacted your office on August 7, 1998 after receipt of the second notice and spoke to Wesley Sellars, document specialist, who suggested we write a letter.

We ask that you please have consideration in this matter as this is the first time we have had a problem and honestly we feel that this is our first notice.

Sincerely,

Rey M. Suarez, DVM
