Dear Sir/Madam,

We are in receipt of your notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation for our above mentioned client.

We have just taken over this client from a hostile accountant in New York City who told our new client that he(the CPA) would take care of the Annual Report and many other reports such as payroll and income taxes. He did not take care of anything and now our client is paying the consequences for the accounting firms mistakes in New York.

We ask that the state accept the enclosed check for $150.00 and to reinstate our client due to mitigating circumstances beyond his control and with no malicious intent to the state. We have never had to write a letter like this, and we are embarrassed that another CPA would drop the ball so badly. We hope you office understands this situation and accepts our proposal.

We Thank You in advance.

Sincerely,

Steven M. Kantor C.P.A.
