Dear Sir:

My husband and I have a small "mom and pop" aviation business. He is a semi-retired aviation lawyer and teacher. Our business income comes mainly from some consulting and his teaching on a contract basis at the FAA Aviation-Academy in Oklahoma-City where he mainly teaches inspectors enforcement procedures.

We returned on May 1 from a trip to New York and I had intended to file/mail our Uniform Business Report (URB) upon my return recalling it was due on May 15. To my dismay when I today arrived at our small office in downtown Fernandina and proceeded to file the report, I noticed the due date as May 1 and not May 15!

We operated at a loss last year and the $300 penalty is very meaningful to our business. Would you please waive the $300 penalty. I handle all the taxes etc for our office and pride myself on being very efficient. "Pride comes before a fall" so they say and I apologize for my error. We would be very grateful if you would grant our request. We have been prompt on our previous reports having been in business in Florida since 1994.

Sincerely,

Medra L. Keyser
