To Whom it May Concern,

In 1994-95 I formed a corporation called ART CAST, INC. (certificate No. 16-03-280613-55) i n the hopes of producing my art work for sell. After the initial start-up, circumstances arose that did not allow the appropriate backing needed to produce the art work. Therefore the business never got off the ground. Nothing went further than the paper work involved.

In 1995-96 I called Tallahassee to inform them the corporation was not functionable and wished to be absolved. The individual I spoke to said they understood and appropriate steps would be taken to absolve the corporation. This was also indicated on my tax return of the same year. I still received correspondences from State and Tax agencies concerning the corporation , so I called again with the same reply.

My only wish is to close the matter in good faith. Inclosed is an article of dissolution I was able to obtain.

Thank you for your help in these matters,

Jim L. Radford
