Dear Division of Corporations

In the past years, we always received, in the mail, a postcard to remind us, that the Corporate tax of $150 is due, by May 1, and we always paid it on time.

This year, However, we never received that physical notice and as a result, we found July 1, a past due notice in an email, which we only check if we are aware that an email is coming. We don't use our email function.

Unfortunately, by hurrying to get the corporate tax filed, we paid the $400- penalty fee, a total of $550- on our MasterCard. We neglected to check the waiver box, we wanted to explain the circumstance.

Every year, we pay our $150 and file our report on time. We will, next year, be aware to look for the notice in an email and file it promptly, as we have in the past.

However, this year, with the economy the way it is, we would greatly appreciate a refund of the $400 penalty fee, being we never received the ^{Traditional} reminder notice, and this being our first time late, with our filing.

Here's our information:
