To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to transmit my 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report along with a $150 check and a letter explaining why my filing was late.

My letter dated July 1st and my report and check were returned to me today along with a letter stating I still owed the $400 late fee. I contacted your office again and was told by Angie that I had sent the information to the wrong section of your division and that is why my plea was not considered.

I respectfully request your consideration and compassion in this matter.

Sincerely,

Peter J. Andolina
President

RE: Annual Reports Filings, 1998

To Whom It May Concern:

Today I received the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report Packet. Stamped on the packet was "2nd Notice". Much to my surprise, since I never received a "First Notice", the packet also indicated that I must pay a $400 penalty since I did not file by May 1st.

I have had my corporation since 1994. I have always filed all state required documents, reports, and taxes in a timely manner. Had I received a "First Notice" I would have been timely again this year. There is no way I would ever risk a $400 penalty. I am a one person company operating at bare bones. $400 is a major hardship to me.

I contacted your office to report that I had never received a "First Notice" and should not be penalized and I was told to state my case in a letter along with the completed report and a check for $150.

Please do not penalize me for something I had no control over.
Thank you for your consideration of this plea.

Sincerely,
