Gentlemen,

Further to my conversation this morning with your office, I am sending you my check in the amount of $150.00 with document #P94000066331.

As I have explained to the gentleman, this is the third year we are receiving the document only at its second notice. Last year there was a suite number on the address, which we have corrected and removed. This year the address is correct, yet we have not received the first notice at all. Yet we have received the second notice at the correct address on State Rd 84 requesting the amount of $550.00 instead of $150.00.

As per your employee's instruction, I am sending you the fee of $150.00 with the understanding that you will be waiving the higher fee.

Please advise us whether the first notice is sent to the registered agent or to us directly, as we can't understand why we have not received that first notice.

Thanking you in advance for your kind cooperation, I remain,

Sincerely,

Yves Jorcin
