Dear Sir or Madam:

Regarding: White Lion Van Lines, Inc. P96000087606, Biltmore Leasing, Inc. P94000050139,
Brentwood Enterprises, Inc. P94000072162

I spoke with Tyrone Scott, an employee at the Division of Corporations, regarding three Notice of Intents to dissolve the following corporations: White Lion Van Lines, Inc., Biltmore Leasing Inc. and Brentwood Enterprises, Inc.

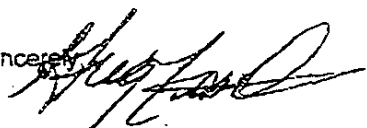

Tyrone advised me to write a letter in order to have the Notice of Intent to Dissolve for White Lion Van Line, Inc., Biltmore Leasing Inc. and Brentwood Enterprises, Inc. removed.

Per Tyrone's instruction, I have enclosed the (3) three copies of the checks that were sent to the Division of Corporations on April 19, 2004. All three checks and Annual Corporate Reports were mailed in the same envelope. Internally, my accounting department noticed that none of the checks cleared their respective banks when the April 2004 bank reconciliation's were completed. On May 5, 2004 two of the Annual Corporate Reports were filed online in order to avoid the corporations from being dissolved. After completing the second report I noticed that that we were charged a $400.00 late fee, therefore I called the Division of Corporations for assistance. I was advised by your office not to do the third company online because the $400.00 late fee is automatically charged online if the report is completed after May 1, 2004. I have also enclosed copies of the credit card statement showing two separate charges for $550.00 totaling $1,100.00.

Tyrone Scott informed me that the late fees would be removed and we would receive a refund or credit in the amount of $650.00 and all three corporations would be reinstated properly upon receipt of this letter.

If you have any questions or need help reconciling these renewals please contact Melony at 561-997-2400 ext. 202 or contact me directly on my cell phone at 561-866-9269. Your prompt attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Greg Fischer
President
