RE: The Litigation Center

To Whom It May Concern:

In November, I bought my friends practice as she was elected to be a judge. At that time I also merged with Philip Reizenstein. We became Woodward & Reizenstein, P.A. doing business as The Litigation Center. We filed the appropriate papers and are registered as Woodward & Reizenstein, P.A. and as a fictitious name the Litigation Center. I did not realize that we needed to be The Litigation Center, P.A. as well. I did not receive any notice in regards to The Litigation Center until today when I received the forwarded second notice. I called and was informed in order to keep the name so no one else can use it I need to pay for The Litigation Center, P.A. and to change the information. The assistant indicated that I could pay $150.00 as there was this confusion and I did not receive the first notice.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline M. Woodward, Esq.

I held on to this paperwork be cause
Florida Dept. of Revenue indicated it was a merger. However it turns out it is a merger that has the PA active. I still don't understand but I am sending this letter w/ $150 check. The merger occurred around 9/26/03.
The merger is with Jacqueline Woodward, P.A.
