To Whom It may Concern,

We are sending you the annual report for the following 3 corporations. We did speak to someone in your office and we explained to your office the problems that we had with the mail and the new management of this office space. As we explained, the building was bought by a new person and new arrangements were made concerning the mailing out and receiving of documents. This greatly affected our ability to receive most of our mail. In addition, Renovations were made to our office which also lasted about two and half months. These issues caused our offices to loose some mail. Some of those many important pieces were of course the annual reports that were sent to our office. Fortunately for me, I was able to find out that our annual reports were not filed. As per your request, I have sent a letter of explanation and the filing fees for these 3 corps. Please process them ASAP. Your prompt attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you

Gilbert Estime
