Dear Sir/Madam:

We received your initial request for completion of our UBR form in June. It is our understanding that if we notified you in writing that the notice we received in June was our first notice, which it was, that we would not be liable for the $400.00 late fee. In accordance with our understanding we provided a letter to that effect dated 7/8/03 (copy enclosed) with our check for $150.00 and our completed form.

We have now received your letter dated 7/11/03 (copy enclosed) indicating that there is a balance due of $400.00, which is the late fee. We do not feel that we should be responsible for a late fee when the first we were aware that the $150.00 fee was due was in June 2003 when we received our first notice.

We would appreciate your review of our request for wavier of the late fee. Please let us know if any additional information is required.

Sincerely,

Wanda J Hobbs

Wanda J. Hobbs
President
