Re: Corporation Reinstatement
Document # P94000075748

Dear Sirs:

It was brought to my attention today, by an outside business associate, that our corporation had been dissolved by the state for failure to file the corporate annual report per your online database. I immediately called the Division for Corporations and spoke with an examiner and explained the following.

I did not see, possess or touch the annual report renewal form or correspondence from the state concerning the report during the year 2002. I have checked with other associates located in our same building and they do not recall seeing any correspondence from your office. We are not currently very active with this corporation but have no desires to dissolve it and have been filing our renewal each year since its inception.

We hereby request that you grant us forgiveness for the reinstatement fee and the associated penalties and allow us to pay the filing fee of $150.00 for last year (2002) and $150.00 filing fee for 2003. I have enclosed a completed Corporation Reinstatement document and a check in the amount of $300.00 in the hope you will grant this one time request. I assure you, I will personally be responsible to insure our renewal is filed timely each year.

If you cannot grant our request, please let me know.

Sincerely,

M. E. Kenyon Company

Patricia A. Michael
Corporate Secretary/Treasurer
