Florida Department of State Division of Corporations P.O. Box 6327 Tallahassee, Florida 32314

Dear Mr. Caldwell:

Thank you so much for speaking to me the other day and for helping me with our Corporation problem. I was alarmed when I discovered that I never received an application for filing for 1997. What probably happened is a young couple who lived in the same development as we do and had the same name as I have moved away this year. They probably received your letter and discarded it thinking it was an advertisement of some kind.

My sister (And Partner) has been in New York with her husband since February, He had a heart valve replaced. Two and a half months ago he developed an infection called listeria from a piece of melon. He was in intensive care all of the time. It has been such a tragedy for our entire family that I could not concern Jane with business questions. Her husband died last week. After the funeral I did discuss the business with her and she suggested that I call your office to check on our status. I was under the impression that we had to renew in October, based upon the first time we applied for a license. She was the one who did all of the paperwork, I am now trying to do it until she comes back.

Again Mr. Caldwell, thank you for your patience and your help at this very difficult time.

Very sincerely,

many Celluio
Mary Collins President
