Re: S. Howard Orner, P.A./Reinstatement
Document Number: P 94000078303

Dear Mr. Logan:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation, I am enclosing herewith a reinstatement application, your correspondence of March 27, 1998 and a copy of previous correspondence sent to your department on March 25, 1998, which sets forth a detailed explanation for my failure to provide timely Annual Reports with respect to the above captioned P.A.

Accordingly, you indicated that if I enclosed a check of Seven Hundred Fifteen Dollars ($715.00), you would waive all penalties, including any late filing fees, and thus, reinstate my corporation as active and in good standing.

Again, thank you for your consistent cooperation concerning the foregoing. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

S. HOWARD ORNER, P.A.

Re: S. Howard Orner, P.A./Reinstatement
Document Number: P94000078303

Dear Sir/Madam:

It is my understanding that the above referenced corporation has been administratively dissolved for failure to file Annual Reports since on or about 1994.

Please be advised that I have not received any Annual Reports from the Secretary of State in this regard. One explanation that comes to mind is that my offices were relocated within the same office building from suite number 410 to 110 and there have been many occasions where I have not received certain mail.

In fact, it is my understanding, according to my accountant, that an Annual Report needs to be filed on or before April 1, 1998 and I have not received any of the forms to do so.

I would respectfully request that you reinstate my corporation and advise me of the amount that will be required to do so without assessing any late penalties for same.

Thanking you in advance for your kind consideration and cooperation with regard to the foregoing. Should you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

S. HOWARD ORNER, P.A.
