14. The second part of the contract is the "Performance" section, which outlines the specific tasks and deliverables that the contractor is expected to provide. This section is crucial for ensuring that the contractor understands the scope of the project and the expectations of the client. It typically includes a detailed description of the work to be performed, a timeline for completion, and a list of the resources and materials that will be required. The "Performance" section also often includes a section on "Quality Assurance," which outlines the standards and procedures that will be used to ensure that the work is completed to a high level of quality. This section is important for ensuring that the contractor is aware of the client's expectations and is committed to meeting them.
