Dear Leslie,

I, Pamela Pepperdine, the new owner of DLM of Wekiva, Inc. (dba/ The Beach Scene) am responding back to your letter dated June 24, 1997, in regards to reinstating the company.

As a first time business owner I have recently incurred some very expensive lessons. Back in June, just shortly after purchasing the business, I called the Florida Department of State to inquire about the procedures for changing my dba from "The Beach Scene" to "Rapture". It was then that I learned that I bought a dissolved business. I called Darren Mazur (past owner/president) to ask him why he never filed the Annual Report. Leslie, to make a long story a little shorter, he said that he never received any correspondence. He then called Tallahassee himself and learned that they were sending correspondence to an address that he hadn't been living at for more than one year and that no correspondence had ever been sent here to the business. Because of this the woman that he spoke to instructed him to file the annual report and pay the appropriate fees excluding the reinstatement fee. After doing so we got everything sent back to us stating that we now owe $915.00.

Leslie, I do not have the persons name that Darren spoke to months ago, however I am asking you to please honor what we were originally asked to do. On August 27th, I spoke to someone named Stacy and she asked me to put this in writing, because non-recievement of correspondence is the only explanation for no reinstatement charges.

This is my first time ever owning a business and I am really struggling financially just trying to get it going. Leslie, any assistance you can give me will be greatly appreciated.

I have enclosed checks totalling $373.75, in hopes that this will be satisfactory. I have also enclosed a request to change our dba/ Fictitious Name form. I have already advertised the name/Rapture in the Apopka Chief news paper. I am under pressure to get this done as soon as possible, because my city of Apopka Occupational License Renewal is due. Leslie, please get in touch with me at your earliest. You can reach me at (407) 884-7780 to work this out together.

Thank you for all your help.

Sincerely,

Pamela Pepperdine

P.S. Also inclosed are 1 check totaling $50. for Registering Fictitious Name and another for $30.00 for a Certified Copy.

Leslie, Many Thanks!
