Dear Mrs. Mortham:

I received a 2nd notice of 1997 Florida Profit Corporation Annual Report in the mail. I am not sure of the exact date as I was away from my business for most of July(family emergency). I am writing because I had never received the first notice. I called the number on the front of the packet and spoke with Cheryl Coullieccce who advised me to write you with my dilemma. While speaking to her she asked how long I had been in business and was I not aware of the yearly fee. My answer to that is I have been in business since November of 1994, I had at that time a bookkeeper to handle my affairs. He has since moved and I have not yet found a replacement. I have also lost my accountant to cancer. I know this is not your problem, but I can assure you that had I received the first notice, It would have been paid by the due date. I am asking you to please accept my check for $165.00. I am a small businessman, I pay my bills on time because I simply can not afford the cost of late fees. This extra $400.00 is my rent for one month. If you would please consider my request, I would be eternally grateful.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Anthony Fiorelli
