To whom it my concern,

I am submitting this report for the second time this year. The first time I sent it was March 15, 2002. I requested a Certificate of Status, as I always have in the past, and when I did not receive it in a timely manner, and the check did not clear, I went to - www.sunbiz.org to make sure you had received it. Your website did not show that the annual report had been received. After speaking with someone at your office she said that it had, indeed, not been received and I needed to resubmit it with a letter explaining why I was sending it late, along with the original amount due. I am hoping that based on my history of always sending in the report and fee well before the due date, and because this is a resubmittal, that you will waive the late fee.

Thank you sincerely,

Robert D. Friedman
