To Whom it May Concern:

When we discovered our "lost" Annual Corporation Reports, we wrote the checks and sent them by Federal Express to your office. We neglected to send a cover letter with them to explain our problem.

In March our bookkeeper had dental surgery and then went on vacation for two weeks through the middle of April. One of our young part-time helpers decided to clean up the bookkeeper's desk for her and filed these reports in the proper file, not understanding that they had not been paid. By the time the bookkeeper returned she had forgotten that they were not paid as they were not with the unpaid bills.

We have never been late before, and never will again. We would be most grateful if you would waive the penalties. We look forward to your reply.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Louis W. Herring
General Manager
