To Whom It May Concern:

On July 3, 1998, I wrote a letter outlining my telephone conversation with your office on July 2, 1998. In that letter, I remember speaking to Marie, as well as another gentleman at the following number (850-487-6059). I explained that I have not received any notice from your office for my annual report. The only notice I have ever received in 1998 was the second notice, informing me that a fee was being charged to me for my failure to file the report on time. How can I file an annual report on time, when I have never received it? If you research my records, all of my federal, State and County files are all done on a timely basis.

I am formally asking, in writing, to wave the late fee. I am submitting my check of $150.00. I hope you look favorably upon my request. Enclosed, please find a copy of our letter dated July 3, 1998, your letter dated July 10, 1998 with my original application and check.

Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Efrain Aponte, P.A.
