ARTICLE IX SPECIAL CHARTER PROVISIONS

The number of Directors of the corporation, who need not be stockholders, may not be less than that (3) and may be increased to not more than nine (9) members as may be provided by the By-Laws. In case of a vacancy in the Board of Directors, through death, resignation, disqualification, or other cause, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors. In case of any increase in the number of Directors, the additional Directors shall be elected by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by Statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

- (a) Subject to the By-Laws, if any, adopted by the Stockholders, to make, alter, amend or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation.
- (b) If the By-Laws so provide, to designate by resolution trans(2) or more of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, which shall have and may exercise any or all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business affairs and property of the corporation during the intervals between the meetings of the Board of Directors, so far as may be permitted by law.
- (c) From time to time, to determine whether and to what extent and at what time and place and under what conditions and regulations the accurate accounts and books of the corporation (other than the stock ledger) or any of them shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or document of the corporation except as conferred by Statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the stockholders or directors.
- (d) The corporation may at any meeting of its Board of Directors, sell, lease or exchange all of its property and assets essential to its corporate business, upon such terms and conditions, either for cash, for the securities or any other corporation or corporations, or for such other transactions as its Board of Directors may deem expedient and for the best interests of the corporation when and as authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the stock of each class issued and outstanding given at Stockholders' Meeting duly called for the purpose, or when authorized by the written consent of the holders of record of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the stock of each class issued and outstanding.

- (e) Both stockholders and directors shall have power, if the By-Laws so provide, to hold their meetings either within or without the State of Florida, to have one or more offices and to keep the books of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, within or without the State of Florida, at such places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.
- (f) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or is a Director or Officer or are Directors or Officers of such other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the corporation or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any person or persons, firm or corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any Directors or Director of the corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person, persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a Director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from thus contracting with the corporation in which he may be in anywise interested. Any Director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company,
- (g) Upon any increased issue of stock, the stockholders shall have the pro rata preferential right to subscribe therefor at such price and on such terms as the Board of Directors may, in each instance, fix.
- (h) None of the Stockholders' shares can be sold, pledged, or encumbered by any of the individual Stockholders unless it first be offered to the other Stockholders in proportion to the number of shares held by them at the ten market value, by giving the other Stockholders notice in writing of intention to sell, after which notice the other Stockholders shall have thirty (30) days within which to either accept or reject the offer.

In the event of acceptance, a closing date and place shall be fixed within ten (10) days after acceptance for the transfer of the selling Stockholder's stock and the delivery of the price therefor. Such stock shall be delivered free and clear of all liens, encumbrances or restrictions.

Nothing herein contained shall restrict the free transfer of the shares of stock of any shareholders to and from their respective spouses.

ARTICLE X

This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights conferred on stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
