To Whom It May Concern:

I, Timothy Roundtree, called and explained to Stacy that I had not received a first Filing Fee Notice for the annual report from your department and also that I was not in operation at this time. I was told to send in the payment of one hundred sixty five dollars in which I did. The check was returned to me. So, I called again and was told to write a letter stating why I did not receive the First Notice, they said write what I believe might have happened. I can think of many possible reasons why I did not receive the First Notice: #1) Your Department did not mail it #2) the Post Office delivered it to the wrong address #3) it came during the time it had rained and flooded my street which made my street inaccessable at that time #4) they had started construction on the road in front of my house and for about two weeks my mailbox was completely missing. I do not know the reason why I did not receive my notice but I do know I did not receive it. So, I am sending my annual payment of one hundred sixty five dollars.

Thank You

Timothy Roundtree
