To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you regarding my 2002 Uniform Business Report, FEI #65-0562321. I am requesting for the late fee to be waived please. I was involved in an unfortunate accident this past March in which I suffered a dislocated hip and fractured pelvis. I required major surgery and was in the hospital in traction for a long time. Since then I've been in and out of rehabilitation for months with this injury. Because of this injury, I simply forgot to mail in my application form and check at the appropriate time. I am sending in the application now with the original fee of $150.00. I hope you can take my situation into consideration and please waive the late fee. Please contact me at the above phone number for any questions that you may have regarding this situation.

Sincerely,

David DeRosa
