Dear Sirs,

It has once again come to my attention that there has been an error in the processing of our corporate annual report. As in the past we did not receive our annual report forms, and in turn had to get them from our accountant. This was done in mid April and was mailed prior to the due date with check number 2669 for $150.00. After receiving our only correspondence from your office for this year, which was a notice of dissolution, we researched with the bank and found the item has never cleared.

Since we took steps above and beyond what we would normally have to do to get this in on time, and the error was no fault of our own, we are sending a replacement check in the amount of $158.75 so we can be assured of your acceptance of our payment with receipt of the certificate of status. We respectfully request that you accept this check and form as a replacement for our original filing.

The dissolution form that I received still does not have all the correct addresses, which I have completed on the form for change.

Your assistance with this matter is greatly appreciated. If there is anything further, I can be reached on my phone at (941) 468-1686.

Sincerely,

Richard Bizzaro
