ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

CHARLES E. DRISCOL, INC.

The undersigned subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation, being natural persons competent to contract, hereby form a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation shall be

CHARLES E. DRISCOL, INC.

ARTICLE II

Existence

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III

Nature of Business

The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation shall be to manufacture, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of, and to invest in, trade in, deal in property of every class, kind and description; except that it is not to conduct a banking, safe deposit, trust, insurance surety, express, railroad, canal, telegraph, telephone, or cemetery company, a building and loan association, mutual fire insurance, cooperative association, fraternal benefit society, state fair or exposition.

To the same extent as natural persons might or could do, to purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, maintain, work, develop, sell, lease, exchange, hire, convey, mortgage or otherwise to dispose of and deal in, lands and leaseholds and any interest, estate, and rights in real property, and any personal or mixed property, and any franchises, rights, licenses, or privileges necessary, convenient or appropriate for any of the purposes herein expressed.

To engage in any activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States and of this state.

To conduct business in, have one or more offices in and to buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease or otherwise to dispose of real and personal property, including franchises, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and licenses, in the State of Florida, and all other states and countries.

To contract debts and borrow money, issue and sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness as required.

To purchase the corporate assets of any other corporation and engage in the same or other character of business.

To guarantee, endorse, purchase, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise acquire or dispose of the shares of the capital stock of, or any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by any other corporation of the state of Florida, or any other state or government, and while owner of such stock, to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote such stock.

To exercise all the powers now granted to this type of corporation under Florida law, and all powers subsequently authorized or granted by law to private corporations.

The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV

Capital Stock

The aggregate number of shares that the corporation shall have the authority to issue is Five Hundred (500) shares of common stock with a par value of one dollar ($1.00) per share. Each share of stock shall be entitled to one (1) vote, noncumulative, and shall be subject to such restrictions on transfer thereof as may be hereafter adopted by the stockholders and directors of this corporation.
