Dear Sir/Madame:

Enclosed please find the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report for Mason Strategic Communications, Inc., as well as check for $150.00 filing fee.

This letter will serve to explain why report is late and why late fee is not included. A first report was never received as well as report packet for Bring it to Broward, Inc., of which I am a director/secretary. On July 6, 1998, "second notice" report packet was received in our office for both of these entities. We called the Department of State and spoke to "Steve F.", who informed us that a letter was necessary to explain the lateness of our report and that it would be reviewed upon receipt. We request that the late fee of an additional $400 be waived since first notice packets were never received.

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please contact me immediately.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Debbie".

Debbie Mason, President
