A director or officer of the Corporation shall not be disqualified from office solely because the director or officer dealt or contracted with the Corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise. No act of the Corporation shall be void or voidable by reason of the fact that any director or officer of this Corporation is also a member of a firm; an officer, director, shareholder or trustee of a corporation, a trustee or beneficiary of a trust; or otherwise connected with any other enterprise that is in any way interested in the act. The fact that the director or officer, or that the firm, corporation, trust, or other entity is interested shall be disclosed to the members of the board present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on the transaction is taken. The transaction must be authorized by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Any interested director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors that authorizes or takes actions in respect to any such transaction. No interested director may vote to authorize, ratify or approve the transaction. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause or proceeding, the question of whether a director or officer of the Corporation has acted in good faith is material, and notwithstanding any statute or rule of law or of equity to the contrary, his or her good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of clear and convincing evidence and proof to the contrary.

XIII. INDEMNIFICATION

Without limitation, the term "expenses" shall include all counsel fees, expert witness fees, court costs and any other costs of a similar nature. The Corporation shall not, however, indemnify any officer, director, or employee until the Board of Directors consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, has determined, by majority vote at a meeting or by a written instrument signed by a majority of the directors who were not parties to such action, that the officer, director, or employee:

(a) Was not grossly negligent in his or her duty to the Corporation, not guilty of intentional misconduct in the performance of duties to the Corporation.

(b) Acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation; and

(c) In any matter subject to criminal action, suit or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

13.2 Any officer, director, or employee who is entitled to indemnification from the Corporation may make a written demand on the Board of Directors, by serving the written demand on the President or the Secretary *unless the President and the Secretary are both making the demand, in which case service may be made on any other officer of the Corporation). If the Board of Directors does not, within 15 days after service of the written demand, determine that the officer, director, or employee is entitled to indemnification, the officer, director, or employee may, within 60 days following date of service of the demand, apply to a court of general jurisdiction in the county in which the Corporation maintains its principal office, to consider the matters referred to in Sub-paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of Paragraph 13.1. If the court determines that the conduct of the officer, director, or employee was such as to meet the requirements in the subparagraphs, the court shall order the corporation to indemnify the officer, director, or employee to the same extent as if the Board of Directors had originally made the determination.
