SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under the Florida Business Corporation Act, and who is a natural person competent to contract, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE 1

The name of this Corporation shall be H/E CORPORATION, a Florida corporation.

ARTICLE 2

This Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE 3

The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized are as follows:

1. To transact any lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida General Corporation Act, and to engage in any trade or business which can, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the corporation, be advantageously carried on in connection with the foregoing business.

2. To do such other and further things as are incidental to the foregoing or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the foregoing.

3. To carry out any business, occupation, undertaking, enterprise and exercising any power or authority which may be done by a private corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, and as amended, it being the Directors. The Directors named above shall have the power to approve and adopt the Bylaws of this Corporation until their successors are elected or appointed.

B. The qualifications, time and place of election and term of office of each Director shall be as provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

C. The officers of this Corporation may consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers and agents as may be provided for by the Bylaws of this Corporation, who shall be chosen, serve for such term, and have such duties as may be prescribed by such Bylaws.

ARTICLE 9

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other Corporation, and no act of the Corporation shall be affected in any way or invalidated by the fact that any of the Directors of the Corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are Directors or officers of, such other Corporation. Any Director individually, or any firm which any Director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the Corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is related by virtue of such attribution, shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon such contract or transaction shall be taken; and any Director of the Corporation who is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors which shall authorize any such contract or transaction, and may vote thereat to authorize any such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not such Director or officer of such other Corporation or not so interested.

ARTICLE 10

A. Stockholder Agreements. The Corporation and its Stockholders or the Stockholders among themselves, may enter into agreements, restricting the transferability or encumbrance of the stock of the Corporation. Such agreements may confer upon the Corporation or the Stockholders, or both an option of first refusal or mandatory purchase in the event of such transfer or encumbrance. Such agreements may include such restrictions during the lifetime or upon the death or legal incompetence of any Stockholder. Nothing in the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws shall be construed to authorize a transfer of such stock upon the books of the Corporation in violation of such agreements.

B. Indemnification of Directors and Officers. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director or Officer who by virtue of his being a Director or Officer of this Corporation, is made a party to any action or proceeding, except when such Director or Officer is adjudicated guilty of malfeasance in the discharge of his duties to the Corporation. Indemnification shall be for all reasonable expenses incurred as a result of such action or proceeding.

C. Directors liability. No Director shall be liable to the Corporation for any loss or damage suffered on account of any action taken or omitted in good faith, if such Director exercised the same degree of care that a prudent man would have exercised in the conduct of his own affairs.

D. Reimbursement of Directors. In any action or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the Corporation against a Director, which results in a decision in favor of the Director, the Corporation shall reimburse the Director for all reasonable expenses incurred by him in the course of the action or proceedings.

ARTICLE 11

The Directors shall not be liable for illegal dividends or distributions made by the Corporation, unless willful or negligent, if based on good faith reliance on representations made by officers or agents or records as to the financial condition of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 12

A. These Articles of Incorporation are amendable upon approval by the Board of Directors of proposals submitted by the Stockholders and subsequently approved at a Stockholders meeting by fifty-one (51%) percent of the stock entitled to vote.

B. Notwithstanding the amending process contained in Paragraph A above, amendments may be made upon written approval by all of the Stockholders.

ARTICLE 13

No Stockholder shall have the right to sell, assign, pledge, encumber, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of the Corporation without first offering such shares for sale to the
