To whom it may concern,

Our small company has been in distress since last year due to the severe heart illness and operation of my husband and partner. We hired a person to do all our paper work, and that person decided to leave, left all the company paperwork in a mess, we had very hard time finding everything necessary to finally file our corporate taxes, in the main time my husband started to have heart problems, and received a five heart by-pass This company is a one-woman company, and I have to divide my time between working and caring for my disable husband. I would appreciate if you can wave the penalties, we are hardly making a living and we thought in good faith the accountant had filed the report until we found it this morning scatter inside a drawer. A fee of $550.00 represents a hardship to our lives. We would be forever grateful if you can accept our renewal payment and wave the late fee.

Sincerely,

Marie Tabsch
