ARTICLE TWELVE

The stockholders of this corporation may enter into such stockholders and trustee agreements as they may see fit wherein and whereby such stockholders may limit their rights by virtue of such stockholders and trust agreements. This corporation shall have the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation and any right conferred upon the stockholders is subject to this provision.

The stockholders, or any two(2) or more of them, may by agreement recorded in the Minute Book of this corporation, impose such restrictions on the sale, transfer or encumbrance of the stock in this corporation owned by the subscribers to such agreements as they may see fit. The by-laws of this corporation may impose any restrictions on the sale, transfer, or encumbrance of the stock of this corporation as may be lawful under the statutes and laws of the State of Florida, when such by-law is adopted or amended.

Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present in person at any meeting of the Board of Directors, shall be conclusively deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he/she shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

Any contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation, which acts upon or in reference to, such contract or transaction; and notwithstanding his/her or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall nevertheless, authorize, approve or ratify, such contract or transaction by a vote of the majority of the directors present, such interested director or directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not to be counted in calculating the majority necessary to carry such vote. These provisions shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under common law and statutory law applicable thereto.

The Board of Directors is hereby specifically authorized to make provisions for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as directors and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. Any director of the corporation may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefore in any form.

ARTICLE TWELVE

This corporation is authorized to indemnify any director, officer or employee, or former director, officer or employee of this corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as director, officer or employee of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him/her in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he/she is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he/she shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding, to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. This corporation may also reimburse to any director, officer or employee, the reasonable cost of settlement of such action, suit or proceeding if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the directors of this corporation not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the interest of this corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such indemnification or reimbursement shall not preclude such director, officer or employee from exercising any right to which he/she may be entitled under the by-laws or otherwise.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders, and approved at a stockholders meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We the undersigned subscribing incorporators have hereunto set our hands and seals this _____ day of _____ 1995, for the purpose of forming this corporation under the laws of the State of Florida and we make and file in the office of the Secretary of State this certificate of Incorporation and certify that the facts herein are true.
