Re: Dissolution of Corporations

To Whom It May Concern:

In connection with a federal lawsuit, Federal Trade Commission v. Comtel Communications Global Network, Inc., Case No.: 96-3134-CIV-HIGHSMITH, on November 5, 1996, Senior District Court Judge C. Clyde Atkins entered an Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order against Comtel Communications Global Network, Inc. ("Comtel") and its principals, Marc Zimmerman, Eric Zimmerman, Victoria Zimmerman, and Philip Berger. The Court found that there was good cause to believe that the defendants had engaged in acts and practices in violation of Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S. C. § 45(a) and the Franchise Rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 436, stemming from the defendants' sales of pay telephones to consumers throughout the nation. Assets of the defendants were frozen by the Order.

The Court appointed this firm to be Receiver of Comtel and its affiliated companies. Over the course of the Receivership it was determined that Comtel Communications Global Network North, Inc.; Zimco Trading Co.; Zimco Communications, Inc.; Zimco Investments & Development, Inc.; K.C. Communications, Inc.; and Erotavision, Inc., companies affiliated with Comtel, would be part of the Receivership. As part of the same case, this firm was subsequently appointed Receiver of International Toy Distributors, Inc., another affiliated company which was started up in Comtel's old business location by several of the same individual defendants during the pendency of the Receivership.

Each of these companies, including Comtel, has been shut down and has ceased to do business for more than a year. Some of them are currently administratively dissolved. I am enclosing dissolution forms for each of the corporations listed herein as well as a $35.00 check to cover the dissolution fee.

Please contact me with any questions or comments.

Very truly yours,

Jane W. Moscovitz
