Dear Beth:

As per our telephone conversation, due to an improper search by one of your clerks our requested corporate name of Bay View Investment, Inc. was marked unavailable and the Articles of Incorporation were returned to our office. Kevin apparently has the check for fees and you have said that you will expedite our new request for a closing taking place on March 24, 1995. I have enclosed the original and one copy of the Articles of Incorporation for Bay View Accounts. I would very much appreciate having the certification letter faxed to our office at (305) 358-9023 as soon as you can prior to the closing, following up via U.S. Mail with the file stamped Articles and original certification.

Thank you so much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Carolyn H. Kent
