I never received the first annual Corporate report in the mail. If you check my post history, I have never been late in filing a report or a payment.

If the first report was mailed, it may have been lost by the Post Office or delivered to the wrong company.

Please accept my check for $150 which would have been due with the first notice. As you see, I sent this package to you next day mail.

Very truly yours
~~Barry~~ Weiss
