Dear Sir or Madam:

I just found the envelope enclosed behind the desk. I do not know what to say, I made a mistake, I thought the filings had been mailed a long time ago. The business is has been struggling just to stay out of bankruptcy. I can not afford this amount of fine. I am begging for all leniency that is available to me!! The envelope was completed and just lost, there was no intentional avoidance to pay the fee's. I need a break. I have had to pay enormous amount of legal fee's, penalties and other costs when I have been loosing money and keeping this business a float. I have made no profit and owe no taxes but have to pay late filing penalties and I went thru 4 accountant's and 4 years before getting my taxes complete by my current accountant, which I took them the paper work in a box and threw away all the other work the previous accountants had done and they completed the taxes in less than 4 weeks. The previous accountant had the work for over one year and been paid thousands of dollars and did nothing. I believe I still have fines and penalties due to the State of Florida, and it's the slow season now and it's just going to have to wait. I'd pay if I could but I can't.

Sincerely,

George J Eck Sr.
President
