September 25, 1997.

To Darlene Connell,

My name is Glenn Martyn. I spoke with you in regard to the status of my corporation Thrill Seeking, INC. on August 11, 1997. You informed me to write you this letter to remind you. I'm trying to start a clothing company. Last fall I used a line of credit on an investment which I was defrauded for $30,000.00. Since then I had to spend all my money on eating and living. I tried to get outside venture capital and it was only during the month of September 1997 that I received an offer for investment in my company. I'm sorry I didn't meet the deadline. I am only 28 years old and for the first time, since I graduated from college, I'm finally getting a good break. Thank you for letting me send in the original amount. I will hopefully become a successful company which might pay a lot of taxes and give back to our kids in various sports. If you ever see our company image you'll be glad to see it does not have sex or drug related messages being sent to our youthful market. Thank you once again for being understanding.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Glenn Martyn". The signature is fluid and stylized, with a long horizontal line extending from the end.

Glenn Martyn,
President
