Dear Sirs;

I am the President and Registered Agent of the above corporation that was administratively dissolved for annual report on 09/19/03.

I understand that a previously formed corporation with the name "Now & Forever Corporation" has applied for a reinstatement with your office and would like to reinstate the name "Now & Forever Corporation".

Since I do not intend to further the activities under "Now and Forever Inc.", I hereby grant permission for the corporation "Now & Forever Corporation" to use that name immediately, prior to the 1 year lapse since dissolution on 9/19/03.

Thank you,

RE: Now & Forever Corporation
Ref. Number: P95000027914

Dear Sirs;

Please find attached a copy of your correspondence dated December 3, 2003 regarding the reinstatement of the above corporation.

Your letter indicates that the name of this entity is no longer available. After telephone contact with your office, you indicated that as long as an officer of the conflicting entity signs a letter indicating no intent to use, that this name would be available for us to use. I have corresponded with an officer of the conflicting entity, "Now and Forever Inc.", and have obtained a signed letter to that effect. This letter is also attached.

I trust that this is all the information that your office needs to complete the processing on the reinstatement of the above-referenced entity.

Should you have any questions, please contact me.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Doreen Penberthy", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Doreen Penberthy
Vice President
