Provisions concerning management and regulations of the affairs of the corporation and Powers of the corporation, board of directors, and shareholders:

- 1) The authority of managing the corporation is given to the Corporate Officers as follows:
 - a) The President has full management authority to act on behalf of the corporation, including the authority to enter into agreements for the corporation. The President is to act as the "chief executive officer" of the corporation in all matters, including setting internal policies.
 - b) The Vice-President has the authority to set internal policies, but does not have the authority to enter into agreements on behalf of the corporation.
 - c) The Secretary has the authority to set internal policies, but does not have the authority to enter into agreements on behalf of the corporation.
 - d) The Treasurer has the authority to enter into agreements on behalf of the corporation, but does not have authority to set internal policies.
 - e) The order of authority, from highest to lowest, of the Corporate Officers is as follows: President; Vice-President; Secretary; Treasurer.

2) The Board of Directors are to appoint/elect the Corporate Officers, and act on behalf of the shareholders.

a) The appointment/election process of Corporate Officers will be determined by a simple majority vote of the Board of Directors, as long as a Quorum is present.

b) A Quorum is defined as at least 51% (percent) of the Board of Directors serving at the time of any vote.

c) If a Quorum can not be achieved within 30 days of any of the Directors request for a vote, then the requirement for a quorum can be suspended for that particular vote. Any such occurrence does not change the Articles of Incorporation's standing requirement for a quorum on any other vote.

d) The Board of Directors will meet at least once each year to review the current Corporate Officers, and all other aspects of the Articles of Incorporation. At these meetings the Board of Directors can change any of the provisions in the Articles of Incorporation by a vote.

3) The Shareholders elect the Board of Directors.

a) The number of votes each Shareholder has is equal to the number of shares they own.

b) The election of the Board of Directors will be determined by a simple majority vote, as long as a Quorum is present.

c) A Quorum is defined as at least 51% (percent) of the shares outstanding being represented at the time of any vote.

d) Shareholders do not need to be physically at a vote, and may send their proxies either in the form of a representative, in writing (when the issues being voted on are known beforehand), by telephone, or by electronic telecommunication (i.e. facsimile, etc.).

Par Value of Shares:

The par value of shares is to be $5.00 for each share.

Provisions for personal liability of shareholders:

The shareholders can only be liable up to the value of the shares they own.
