Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing you on behalf of three of my clients concerning the Annual Report. One client, The Everest Group has five companies under one roof. The companies covered by this letter are:

- | | | |
|------|-----------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. | Under the Everest Group are: | |
| | Everest Benefits Resources, LC. | L97000000913 |
| ✓ | Everest Insurance Concepts, Inc. | V10911 |
| ✓ | Everest Insurance Solutions, Inc. | K48095 |
| ✓ | The Everest Venture Group, Inc. | H39407 |
| ✓ | The Everest Group, Inc. | P960000078348 |
| ✓ 2. | US Alexander Corp. | P95000031326 |
| 3. | Ed Palladini's VIP Valet, Inc. | P97000038228 |

The problem is the clients claim they never received the original Annual Report. Their only notification was when the 2ND NOTICE was received. I handle all accounting matters for the Everest Group which includes opening the mail. The other clients I only file their tax returns. At the end of the year. I can state, to the best of my knowledge, that I did not receive the Annual Reports at the Everest offices. If I know I didn't receive the report then it is very possible that my other two clients also did not their respective reports. The report's color and size serves as a constant reminder that the Return along with its fee are to be mailed by June. Without this reminder it is very easy to slip ones mind and get over looked.

Given the fact that these three clients state that they did not receive the normal report which is normally mailed in January of each year, something must have gone astray. I know that Divisions of Corporations handles millions of reports annually and the post office handles a tremendous amount of mail without any problems, but in this case something went wrong.

I have collected all reports and I am submitting them along with this letter respectfully requesting the Division of Corporation accept the $150.00 fee attached to each report. I understand that failure to file penalties was developed to discourage abuse of the privilege of doing business in Florida, but I also believe that something beyond my clients control went seriously wrong and they should not be penalized. I hope you will accept the reports as filed and waive the failure to file penalties.

Sincerely,

John F. Noonan
Principal
