To whom it may concern:

I apologize for the late filing, however, I have just received the enclosed document requesting my annual corporate report. It had not occurred to me that this report was pass due, or that a notice should have previously arrived. I believe your office would generally send out an original notice.

There has been no change in officers or the status of Launch Inc. Please except my enclosed 1998 filing fee of $150.00 and this report as a measure of your good consideration.

Sincerely,

John R. Wilson
President

P.S. Please be aware of the original date and address of this letter above. After calling your office I learned that I had sent my filing to the wrong address considering the circumstances.
