Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed are Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Coastal Construction Group, Inc., for the purpose of changing its name to Coastal Disaster Response, Inc., and copies of the Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation for Coastal Disaster Response, Inc. for the purpose of changing its name to Coastal Construction Group, Inc.

As you can see, the same individual is president of both of these corporations. Originally, there was a corporation known as Coastal General Contractors, Inc. and the name of that corporation was changed to Coastal Disaster Response, Inc. However, this change was an error. Actually, the name Coastal General Contractors, Inc. was supposed to be changed to Coastal Construction Group, Inc., but when it was changed to Coastal Disaster Response, Inc., a new corporation known as Coastal Construction Group, Inc. was formed.

Due to some confusion with federal taxpayer identification numbers and federal income tax returns, the easiest, most realistic way of handling this matter is for the two corporations to amend their respective articles to change the name to the other corporation's name.

I contacted your office by telephone and they suggested sending these two articles of amendment to the articles of incorporation in together, with this letter of explanation, along with the fees involved for these matters. As such, we have enclosed our check in the amount of $70.00 to cover the cost of two articles of amendment to the articles of incorporation.

If these articles of amendment to the articles of these two corporations can be processed in their present condition, please provide us with stamped copies. A self-addressed, postage paid envelope has been enclosed for your use.
