After contacting the Florida Department of State, I was told to enclose a letter of explanation along with my check for $150.00. I wrote the following information:

"This Annual Report Form is the first I've received this year. Although it is stamped "second Notice", I never received the first notice. I obviously would not ignore a first notice if it meant an additional $400.00 payment."

I sent both the check and the letter on July 9, 1998.

The check was returned, there was no acknowledgement of my letter and the form indicated I owed $550.00.

I called the Department again and was told to send the same check and another letter of explanation to the above address.

I would appreciate it if you would expedite this matter as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

President
Christopher J. Muir
