Dear Mr. Godfrey,

This letter is in reference to the above and our telecon on May 8, 1995.

Although we both agree that KAD and CADS are somewhat similar phonetically, I feel that their differences in spelling and pronunciation can distinguish them from each other. I also feel that "never the twain shall meet" as KAD deals in wedding photography and CADS provides computer drafting and design services to various industries.

I am requesting that CADS, INCORPORATED be accepted for incorporation in the state of Florida with the understanding that CADS, INCORPORATED will not hold the FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE responsible for the issuance of CADS, INCORPORATED nor hold it responsible for any unlikely contests between the two corporations.

Sincerely yours,

Roger A. LaRue

We have received your document for CADS, INCORPORATED and your check(s) totaling $70.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Simply adding "of Florida" or "Florida" to the end of an entity name DOES NOT constitute a difference. Please select a new name and make the substitution in all appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file.

When the document is resubmitted, please return a copy of this letter to ensure that your document is properly handled.

If you have any questions about the availability of a particular name, please call (904) 488-9000.

The corporate name must be identical throughout the document.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (904) 487-6931.
