Re: Corporation Annual Report

Dear Madam/Sir:

I am in receipt of a second notice to file my corporation annual report. Having called the Division of Corporations, I was told to inform your office that a first notice was never received in January, even though the address you have on file is correct. It was suggested that I send a check for $165.00 at this time and await further consideration from your office.

In light of the above, I would appreciate your waiving the penalty in this one instance.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Werner Knurr, M.D.
